Eoin O'Duffy A Self-Made Hero, Fearghal McGarry, 2005, First Edition, First Printing, Oxford University Press, Hardback in Dust Jacket. "Eoin O'Duffy was one of the most controversial figures of modern Irish History. This study, which is the first ever biography of Eoin O'Duffy, draws on unpublished archival and personal papers to trace his journey from revolutionary republicanism to fascism. He founded Ireland's first fascist party and led an Irish Brigade to fight under General Franco in the Spanish Civil War. He died in wartime Dublin, a Nazi collaborator and a broken man." William J Walsh Archbishop of Dublin, 1841-1921, Thomas J Morrissey SJ, 2000, Four Courts Press, First Edition, First Printing, Hardback in Dust Jacket. As new condition. "Archbishop Walsh was the most publicly visible ecclesiastic in the Irish Church in the last quarter of the 19th and the first quarter of the 20th century. In his many books and frequent letters to the newspapers he ranged over a wide area. He also wrote on politics, economics, monetary matters, education, social questions, language, music, canon law and theology." This is a detailed biography of Archbishop Walsh's life running to 404 pages. Maynooth College 1795-1995, Patrick J Corish, 1995, First Edition, First Printing, Gill & Macmillan, Hardback in Dust Jacket. As new with. This is a detailed History of the College with 542 pages and 96 illustrations, maps, plans. "Founded in 1795, Maynooth College has played a pivotal role within the Catholic Church in Ireland. Reflecting the political and social evolution of Ireland itself, and mirroring separate theological developments within the Church, the history of Maynooth has rarely been tranquil, occasionally fractious but always influential."
